

2016 DBMS Ecology Field Trips

Explore Duxbury Bay through hands-on activities with our expert staff! DBMS Ecology Field Trips offer a unique learning experience for students Grade 1 to Grade 8. Students gain an understanding of marine ecology and an appreciation for the fragile bay environment.

Field trips run from 10:00am to 2:00pm with a half hour break for lunch. Students complete four educational stations throughout the day, with two stations before and after lunch. *Lunch at DBMS (11:45am-12:15pm)*

Duxbury Beach Stations (10:00am-11:30am):	Beach Meeting Location:
Beach Zone... "Duxbury's barrier beach creates numerous unique habitats and provides a home for countless critters!"	435 Gurnet Road (near Blakeman's), Duxbury, MA 02331
Saltmarsh Adventures... "Splash around in the tide pools, wind through saltmarsh grass mazes, and make your own food chain!"	Note: Buses are not allowed over the Powder Point Bridge
DBMS Stations (12:30pm- 2:00pm):	DBMS Meeting Location:
- Harbor Explorers... "Learn all about Duxbury Bay and the critters who call it home!"	457 Washington Street, Duxbury, MA 02331
-Marine Scientist in Training... "Calling all future scientists! Learn the essentials of exploring the ocean habitat!"

Note: Your school's student transportation must remain available throughout the duration of the field trip to transport students between Duxbury Beach and DBMS. Stations and lesson plans may vary based on weather, tide, etc. All field trips include educational crafts that reinforce lessons. Groups with over 60 students will be divided into two arrival locations, with half the group meeting at Duxbury Beach and half at Duxbury Bay Maritime School. Both groups will meet at DBMS for lunch, then swap locations to complete the full station rotation.
